

COMMONLY ASKED QUESTION: VIRTUAL EVENTS

How do I join the event? Simply click the button titled "Click Here To Access The Event" and you'll arrive. The link is live now with a countdown up, so please feel free to bookmark it. We will also make it available on our website.

What time should I join? We recommend joining 5-10 minutes before the event to make sure you're set up and ready to roll!

What platform do you use? We use YouTube.

Can anyone see me while I am in the event? No, there is no option to see participants. Unlike Zoom meetings this virtual event will function more like a webinar. You will visit the event page on the scheduled date and time and be able to see our Panelists as they discuss the selected film. Our panelists can see each other, but not you. Your microphone will not be enabled either, so they will not be able to hear you.

But these Panelists all seem super smart and cool, is there any way for me to interact with them even though they cannot see or hear me? YES! At any point during the discussion you will have the opportunity to type your questions and comments in the provided chat box.

I'm at the event site, where is the chat box? The chat box should be on the right hand side of your screen. If you hover over "say something" you will receive a prompt to "create a channel to join the chat" click that button and follow the instructions. If you are already logged into your YouTube account then you'll be able to start chatting upon joining the event. If you simply want to watch the discussion then there is no need to create an account if you do not already have one.

Will we be watching the film together this Thursday at 7:00 pm? No, we will only be gathering for approximately 45 - 60 minutes to talk about the film and all things book related.

What if I haven't seen the film? Can I still join? OF COURSE! If you have time to catch the film before the discussion that's great (check out our virtual screening room here), if not, no big deal!

I'm not available during the event, but I'd love to watch it. Will a recording be provided? Yes, we will post a button to access the recording on our website, www.campustheatre.org.

Money is tight now, do I have to pay to join? No, this is a FREE event open to anyone who wants to learn and connect! Please share the link with anyone you think might be interested!
